What's the buzz!

According to VFACTS sales data released by the Federal Chamber of Automotive Industries SUV sales overtook traditional passenger cars in 2017.

Sports Utility Vehicles (SUV) are an increasingly popular choice with Toyota once again achieving top billing as Australia's best-selling brand.

Toyota Corolla, Mazda3, Hyundai i30 and Kia Cerato still remain popular choices.

Yes, it's coming!

Confirmation that the Chevrolet Camaro SS Coupe muscle car is on its way will surely excite avid enthusiasts who have eagerly been waiting its arrival.

As this is our first monthly publication we would like to hear what content you think may be of interest to the motoring public. If you wish to submit an article for publication on our blog please send it to The Editor for review and moderation.

Geneva Motor Show 2018

The 2018 Geneva motor show opens its doors next week at the huge Palexpo Arena in Switzerland – and it's shaping up to be another bumper year for new car launches and world debuts.

It's at times like these events that I wish Australia was a little closer to Europe to be able to pop along to view some of the latest concept cars. On reflection looking at the extreme cold snap the northern hemisphere is experiencing I prefer our Aussie sunshine.

Until next time - Tony
